About the Event:

On November 3, 2022, the Language and Proficiency Club hosted a highly informative and engaging programme titled "Connect and Communicate: A Public Speaking and Listening Skills Programme." The event took place from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM and was led by Mr. Harold J. D'Souza, Assistant Professor in the Department of Mechanical Engineering at AJIET. The purpose of this programme was to enhance participants' public speaking and listening skills, crucial for effective communication in both personal and professional contexts. The session was designed to provide practical tips, techniques, and strategies for improving these skills.

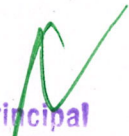

The feedback from participants was overwhelmingly positive. Attendees appreciated the practical nature of the session and found the interactive exercises particularly beneficial for improving their public speaking and listening skills. Many participants expressed a desire for additional workshops and follow-up sessions to further develop these skills.

In conclusion, the "Connect and Communicate" programme was a resounding success, offering valuable knowledge and skills to the attendees. Mr. Harold J. D'Souza's expertise and engaging presentation style contributed to an enriching experience for all participants.
