36. DISCIPLINARY ACTION FOR MISCONDUCT :

- i. That any employee of the Establishment found guilty of any acts of misconduct detailed above shall be liable to be punished with any of the following punishments:
- a. Warning
  - b. Withholding of increments
  - c. Suspension without salary for a period not exceeding four days
  - d. Fine in accordance with the provision of Act, law applicable to the establishment
  - e. Demotion
  - f. Discharge from service without compensation
  - g. Dismissal from service

ii. The Management may institute a departmental enquiry in cases of commission of acts of misconduct by an employee. When the Management decides to hold an enquiry against an employee on certain charges of misconduct, the employee concerned will be informed in writing of the alleged misconduct, and will be given an opportunity to explain the circumstances alleged against him/her except when the misconduct is admitted unconditionally in writing. In case of unconditional admission of misconduct by the concerned employee, the management shall punish the concerned employee without holding any departmental enquiry against him/her. In other cases where the charge sheeted employee denies the charges or fails to submit the explanation in writing, the Management shall hold the departmental enquiry against the concerned employee. During the departmental enquiry, the charge sheeted employee will be permitted to have the assistance of any of his/her co-employee if he/she desires and submits in writing. The Management reserves its right to appoint any person including an outsider as the Enquiry officer.

The charge sheeted employee will be afforded with full opportunity to defend his case at the departmental enquiry. If however the charge sheeted employee chooses not to participate at the enquiry, the enquiry will be held exparte.

iii. The charge sheeted employee shall attend and be present at the enquiry as and when decided and notified either by the Management or the Enquiry Officer.

iv. Where a disciplinary proceeding against an employee of the Establishment is contemplated or is pending or where criminal proceedings against him/her in respect of any offence are under investigation or trial and the Management is satisfied that it is necessary or desirable to place the concerned employee under suspension pending enquiry, the Management may by order in writing suspend him/her with effect from such date as may be specified in the order.

v. The employee on suspension pending enquiry shall be paid subsistence allowance at the following rates:

- a. At the rate of 50% of the salary which the employee was entitled to immediately preceding the date of suspension for the first ninety days of suspension.
- b. At the rate of 75% of the salary for the remaining period of suspension if the delay in the completion of the disciplinary concerned is not directly attributable to the conduct of such employee under suspension. If the delay is attributable to the employee concerned, the rate of subsistence allowance shall be reduced to 25% of the salary after first 90 days.

vi. The payment of subsistence allowance under these service rules shall be subject to the employee concerned not taking up any employment during the period of suspension.

vii. If, on the enquiry, the employee concerned is found guilty of the misconduct and it is considered that only an order of dismissal would meet the ends of justice, the Management will pass an order accordingly. Before passing such order, the copy of the enquiry report and 2nd show cause notice shall be issued to the employee and he shall be given the opportunity to submit his representation.

When such order is passed, the employee concerned shall be deemed to have been absent from duty during the period of his/her suspension pending enquiry and he/she shall not be entitled for remuneration for such period, but the subsistence allowance already paid to him/her shall not be recovered.

If the penalty other than dismissal or removal is imposed on him/her, the punishing authority / Management shall by order decide as to how the period of suspension shall be treated and the decision of the authority/Management shall be final.

viii. If, on the enquiry, the employee concerned is found not guilty of the misconduct, he/she shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of the suspension pending enquiry and he/she shall be entitled for salary he/she would have received, if he/she had not been so suspended.

Provided the subsistence allowance already paid shall be deducted from the salary payable to him/her. 42

ix. Where an employee has been convicted for a grave criminal offence involving moral turpitude by a Court of law or that the Management is satisfied for the reasons to be recorded that continuation of service of such employee is against the interest of the Establishment, he/she may be discharged or dismissed from the Service without observing the procedures detailed in the forgoing paras.
